Judge’s Statement

It was my pleasure to view a selection of such motivated and creative work yesterday. As I noted to those who were present, judging is a difficult task. I wish to emphasize that all the work that I saw had merit. I was asked to choose five pieces for awards. I made my selections based on three categories: One, mastery of the medium. Two, formal qualities of composition, including use of color, line, shape, and how the object sits in space. Three, consideration of a concept, “feeling,” or reason for making the work. While all of the work I saw succeeded in one or more of these areas, the final selections satisfied all three categories. It was a difficult decision, and although I did my best to be impartial, it is important to note that no judge is unaffected by their own personal preferences.

Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,

Colleen Rudolf
