SUPPORTING ARTISTS SINCE 1966

DECEMBER 2020

VOLUME 55 | ISSUE 4

Dear BCAG members,

"I hope everyone gets a chance to enjoy the Gisela Bly show. Thank you to all the members that participated. Thanks go to Gisela's family for submitting some of her paintings and for helping to sponsor the show. The guild is blessed with many talented artists, and I hope you enjoy viewing their wonderful work.

I wish to extend thanks to our board members for all their efforts in putting this show together. A special thanks goes to Joe Hughes for arranging the show beautifully and coordinating the many threads for this, and our other virtual shows this year. This has been a new venture for all of us, and I appreciate the effort and the results.

As the December holidays approach, I would like to ask members to use the guild's AmazonSmile account for any shopping you might do. Please ask your friends and family to do so as well. This costs the guild and shoppers nothing and provides a modest donation to our coffers.

Please join us in our Zoom holiday party and Bly show virtual reception! On Tuesday, December 8 at 7:30PM, we will be celebrating the holidays as well as honoring the awards recipients for the Gisela Bly show. We hope you can join us!

I wish you all happy and healthy holiday season. Please stay safe, and find joy in your days."

Marge

BCAG has an account on AmazonSmile! If you are not familiar with the AmazonSmile program, non-profit organizations can register with Amazon to receive a small donation on purchases that are earmarked for a particular organization. While on the Amazon home page, click on the tab for Accounts and Lists and then click on the AmazonSmile tab. Type out Burlington County Art Guild in the search field. In order for us to receive donations, shoppers must always enter the Smile page first, and then continue shopping. There is no change in the price of items purchased. Please ask all your friends and relatives to participate in the AmazonSmile program when shopping on Amazon! Donations are based on a percentage of sales, and while the percentage is small, many participants will be of benefit to us.
