Monthly Members' Meetings
Every Third Tuesday from
Sept. - Nov., Jan. - May
Burlington County Library
5 Pioneer Boulevard
Westampton, NJ 08060

President's Message:

"Greetings! Winter is half over, and many of us are looking forward to spring. We have our Spring show scheduled for April at the Burlington County Library, and there will be a bit of change to our usual show. It will be a Small Works show this year, with a maximum size of 12x12". I hope everyone will enjoy the change."

"We have some great programs coming up, but we are always looking for suggestions for our monthly meetings. Please let us know if you have any ideas! We want to keep our programs fresh and interesting. Have a great February!"

Marge Taylor

February Program

Artist: Scott Rawlins

Website: <https://www.psbi-art.org/scott-rawlins.html>

Demo: Scott Rawlins to talk about and demo botanical illustration.

Scott Rawlins is a scientific illustrator, naturalist and museum educator who has been teaching scientific illustration at Arcadia University since 1994. He holds degrees from Earlham College (biology), the George Washington University (museum education) and the University of Michigan (medical & biological illustration). A strong proponent of study abroad, Scott has traveled to five continents collecting specimens to draw and study. He has served on the board of the American Society of Botanical Artists, the Philadelphia Society of Botanical Illustrators and the Guild of Natural Science Illustrators. Scott's illustrations have appeared in numerous books, including Your Inner Fish and Shackelford's Surgery of the Alimentary Tract. Journals that have published his illustrations are Acta Zoologica, Records of the Australian Museum, Harvard's Bulletin of the Museum of Comparative Zoology, Geobios and Zootaxa. Scott plans to retire from teaching in May 2020 so that he can devote more time to relearning the piano, studying a Romance language and honing his digital drawing skills.
